

“Solutions and Titrations” abstract rubric		# of points
A.	Heading including name, class, date, and title	2
B.	Statement of purpose	5
C.	Brief description of procedure—including, but not limited to:
	The reaction	5
	The oxalic acid solution	5
	Titration with NaOH (include indicator, appearance of solutions)	11
D.	The findings of this study (the concentration of NaOH \pm standard deviation)	5
F.	Proper grammar	5
G	Follows Rules to Remember in Appendix p. Abstract 5-6 (1 pt/rule) 1. Don't use first person 2. Don't start sentence with a number 3. Use past tense 4. Write units correctly 5. Be concise 6. Use of weighed 7. Don't capitalize unnecessarily 8. Writing numbers 9. Subscripting and superscripting 10. Don't include experimental details such as beaker sizes, size of paper	10
H.	Double spaced	2
Total points		50	