23. Anything else you think exemplifies your work
24. Your term project

Organize your portfolio with all pages bound in the order above in a folder or three ring binder. Be sure all comments I made on all returned activities are addressed. That means that you should redo any problem you missed, and if, for example, you were asked to word process an activity you submitted, you should do that. If you are missing an activity, substitute a sheet on which you explain the reason for the omitted activity. If another group member has the only copy of an activity, contact them and get a copy. Your portfolio is your responsibility.

Remember, this is a chance for you to correct any mistakes you may have made in previous attempts. You will be given a grade on this submission. It will carry the weight of one test grade.
