

Rising and Falling Prices

A store increases its prices 10% each odd month (January, March, ...) and decreases them 10% each even month (February, April, ...).

a. Do prices increase, decrease or stay about the same over a long time period? Justify your answer with calculations and a clear explanation.

b. Why does this phenomenon occur?